I. Principles of Ministerial Conduct: Code of Ethics

Relationships among people are a foundation of Christian ministry and are central to Catholic life. Defining healthy and safe relationships is not meant, in any way, to undermine the strength and importance of personal contact or the ministerial role. Rather, it is to assist all who fulfill the many roles that create the living Church to demonstrate their love and compassion for children and adults in the most sincere and genuine relationships.

It is with the intention that relationships in ministry be experienced at all times as charitable and without intention to do harm or allow harm to occur, that the following Code of Ethics has been adopted by the Archdiocese of Newark. All Church personnel are asked to carefully consider each standard in the Code and within the Policies on Professional and Ministerial Conduct before agreeing to adhere to the standards and continue in service to the Archdiocese.

- Church personnel shall exhibit the highest Christian ethical standards and personal integrity.
- Church personnel shall conduct themselves in a manner that is consistent with the discipline, norms and teachings of the Catholic Church.
- Church personnel shall not take advantage of a counseling, supervisory and/or authoritative relationship for their own benefit.
- Church personnel shall not abuse or neglect a minor.
- Church personnel shall share concerns about suspicious or inappropriate behavior with their supervisor or superiors.
- Church personnel shall adhere to the requirements of the law of the State of New Jersey and the Memorandum of Understanding, described in Section VI.D. of this Policy, regarding the reporting of any suspected abuse of a minor.
- Church personnel shall accept their personal responsibility in the protection of minors and adults from all forms of abuse.

All Church personnel are required to read and sign the agreement to abide by these policies and the Archdiocesan Code of Ethics (see Appendix B).

2. Exploitation: Taking advantage of a pastoral counseling relationship for the benefit of the pastoral counselor.
3. Abuse of minors: The definition of abuse of minors is further defined in Section V.A. and in the Supplemental Norms for Clergy.

III. Prevention of Immoral Conduct: Guidelines for Ethical Behavior

A. Definitions

1. Immoral conduct is conduct contrary to the discipline and teachings of the Catholic Church and may result in scandal to the faithful or harm to the ministry of the Catholic Church.
2. Scandal is an attitude or behavior which leads another to do evil. Scandal damages virtue and integrity. It is a grave offense if by deed or omission another is deliberately led into a grave offense (Catechism of the Catholic Church, No. 2284).

B. Standards of the Archdiocese as to Prevention of Immoral Conduct

1. Church personnel enjoy a public trust and confidence. It is essential that Church personnel view their own actions and intentions objectively to assure that no observer would have grounds to believe that irregularity in conduct exists. All Church personnel have a responsibility to strive to uphold the standards of the Catholic Church in their day-to-day work and personal lives.
2. Further, it is fundamental to the mission of the Archdiocese that Church personnel exhibit the highest ethical standards and personal integrity. The purpose of this policy is to insure that all Church personnel follow the ethical standards of the Catholic Church. Therefore, Church personnel are prohibited from engaging in the following conduct:
 - a. Immoral conduct.
 - b. Procurement or participation in the procurement of abortion, or committing homicide or euthanasia.
 - c. Possession or distribution of pornographic material.
 - d. Adultery, flagrant promiscuity or illicit co-habitation.

 - g. Sexual exploitation or abuse.
 - h. Physical assault and fighting.
 - i. Conduct which is illegal under the laws of our country, state or local government.
3. Church personnel should not harm the reputation of others by:
 - a. Disclosing without legitimate cause the faults or failings of others to persons who have no cause to know them.
 - b. Making false allegations against another.

IV. Prevention of Exploitation: Guidelines for Pastoral Counseling

A. Definitions

1. Pastoral counseling occurs when Church personnel offer spiritual direction or advice concerning moral or spiritual matters. The Church personnel may or may not be a certified spiritual director or trained, licensed or degreed in professional counseling.
2. Exploitation occurs when Church personnel take advantage of the pastoral counseling relationship for the benefit of the pastoral counselor.
3. Sexual exploitation is sexual contact between Church personnel and the recipient of their pastoral counseling services, regardless of who initiates the contact.
4. Sexual intimacies are consensual sexual physical contact, forced (non-consensual) sexual physical contact or sexually explicit conversations not related to pastoral counseling issues.
5. A conflict of interest occurs when Church personnel take advantage of pastoral counseling relationships in order to further their own interest.

B. Standards of the Archdiocese in Prevention of Exploitation

1. Church personnel shall recognize their limitations in pastoral counseling situations and shall refer people to other professionals when appropriate.
2. Church personnel shall not require monetary compensation in exchange for pastoral counseling unless the fees, terms and conditions of such counseling are agreed upon in writing prior to the commencement of the counseling relationship.
3. Church personnel shall not engage in exploitation, sexual exploitation, and/or sexual intimacies with persons whom they counsel. Church personnel are also prohibited from engaging in situations or conduct that can give the appearance of exploitation, sexual exploitation, or sexual intimacies.
4. Church personnel shall not engage in exploitation, sexual exploitation, and/or sexual intimacies with relatives or friends of someone with whom they have a counseling relationship.
5. Church personnel shall set and maintain clear, appropriate boundaries in all pastoral counseling relationships.
6. Pastoral counseling should be conducted in appropriate settings at appropriate times and should not be held at places or times that would cause confusion about the nature of the relationship for the person being counseled.
7. No pastoral counseling should be conducted in the counselor's private living quarters. Pastoral counseling should be conducted in the private living quarters of the individual being assisted only when the physical condition of the individual so requires. In the latter case, an effort should be made for the individuals to be visible (but not audible) to others.

C. Reporting of Pastoral Counseling Exploitation

Exploitation of pastoral counseling involving religious violates canon law. Therefore pastoral counseling exploitation shall be reported as follows:

1. Pastoral counseling exploitation involving Deacons should be reported to the Director of Deacon Personnel.
2. Pastoral counseling exploitation involving a priest, brother or nun should be reported to the Director of Clergy Personnel.

D. Standards of the Archdiocese as to Confidentiality

1. In accordance with the norm of canon law (c.983), the sacramental seal is inviolable by divine mandate; therefore, it is absolutely forbidden for a confessor to betray the confidence of a penitent in any way and for any reason. This is applicable both while the penitent is living and, if applicable, after he or she has died.
2. Information disclosed to Church personnel during the course of counseling, advising, or spiritual direction shall be held in the strictest confidence possible, with due regard for the norm of civil and/or canon law.
3. Church personnel should discuss the nature of confidentiality, including its limitations, with each person who seeks pastoral counseling.
4. If there is clear and imminent danger, the Church personnel is to disclose the information necessary to protect the parties involved and to prevent harm.
5. If disclosure must be made, if feasible, the Church personnel should inform the person being counseled about the disclosure.
6. With the exception of knowledge gained in the Sacrament of Penance, knowledge that arises from professional contact may be used in teaching, delivering homilies, or other public presentations only when effective measures have been taken to absolutely safeguard both the individual's identity and the confidentiality of the disclosures. In the rare event that such disclosures are used, good pastoral judgment is of the utmost importance when making decisions about the use of information in public ministry.
7. If Church personnel discover, while counseling a minor, that there is a serious threat to the welfare of the minor and that communication of confidential information to a parent or legal guardian is essential to the child's health, safety and well-being, the Church personnel should disclose only the information necessary to protect the health, safety and well-being of the minor.

E. Standards of the Archdiocese as to Conflicts of Interest

1. Church personnel shall avoid pastoral counseling that might present or appear to present a conflict of interest. Even the appearance of a conflict of interest can call into question integrity and professional conduct.
2. If a conflict of interest exists or arises, Church personnel should inform all parties. Resolution of the issues must protect the person being counseled.
3. Church personnel shall establish clear, appropriate boundaries with anyone with whom they have a business, professional, or social relationship.

V. Prevention of Abuse of Minors: Guidelines for Working with Minors

A. Definitions

1. A minor is anyone under the age of 18.
2. Abuse is physical abuse, sexual abuse and/or emotional abuse.
3. Physical abuse is non-accidental injury that is intentionally inflicted upon a minor.
4. Sexual abuse is any contact of a sexual nature that occurs between a minor and an adult. This includes any activity that is meant to arouse or gratify the sexual desires of the adult.
5. Emotional abuse is mental or emotional injury to a minor that results in an observable and material impairment in the minor's growth, development or psychological functioning.
6. Neglect is the failure to provide for a minor's basic needs or the failure to protect a minor from harm.

B. Standards of the Archdiocese as to Abuse and/or Neglect of Minors

The following standards are intended to assist Church personnel in making decisions about interactions with minors in Church sponsored and affiliated programs. They are not designed or intended to address interactions within the family. For clarification of any policies or regarding behaviors not addressed here, contact your pastor, agency director, principal or the Director of Communications. (Contact information for the Director is on page 2 of these policies.)

1. Abuse and neglect of minors are contrary to the teachings of the Church and are prohibited. Church personnel have a responsibility to protect minors from all forms of abuse and neglect. Church personnel are prohibited from:
 - a. Using, possessing, or being under the influence of alcohol or illegal drugs while in the presence of minors. This prohibition does not exclude the consumption of alcoholic beverages at Archdiocesan social functions and parish-wide social functions approved by the pastor.
 - b. Swearing in the presence of minors.
 - c. Speaking to minors in a way that is or could be construed by any reasonable observer as harsh, threatening, intimidating, shaming, derogatory, demeaning, or humiliating.
 - d. Discussing their own sexual activities with minors.

- e. Engaging in any sexually oriented conversations with minors unless the conversations are part of a legitimate lesson and discussion for teenagers regarding human sexuality issues. On such occasions, the lessons will convey to youth the Church's teachings on these topics. If youth have further questions not answered or addressed by their individual teachers they should be referred to their parents or guardians for clarification or counseling.
 - f. Being nude in the presence of minors.
 - g. Possessing sexually oriented or morally inappropriate printed materials (magazines, cards, videos, films, clothing, etc.).
 - h. Sleeping in the same beds, sleeping bags or small tents with minors unless the adult is an immediate family member of the minor.
2. Church personnel are responsible for releasing minors in their care only to parents, legal guardians, or other persons designated by parents or legal guardians at the close of services or activities. In the event that Church personnel are uncertain of the propriety of releasing a minor, they should immediately contact their immediate supervisor before releasing the child.
3. Church personnel should report uncontrollable or unusual behavior of minors immediately to parents.
4. Ordinarily a confirmation candidate should select his or her own sponsor. If the parish assigns or assists in the selection of sponsors, they are considered volunteers and must abide by these Archdiocesan policies.
5. Church personnel must be aware of their own and others' vulnerability when working alone with minors. A team approach should be used to manage child and youth activities and other contacts with minors. For example:
 - Two adults should be present if altar servers require assistance putting on their robes in preparation for Mass.
 - If a youth requires a ride home after working in the rectory, the parent should be encouraged to send a family member to pick up the youth, or another adult should accompany the driver.

C. Standards of the Archdiocese as to Offsite and/or Overnight Events

1. The following standards shall be observed when Church personnel are involved in the transportation of minors:
 - a. Church personnel are prohibited from transporting minors without written permission of their parent or guardian.
 - b. Church personnel are prohibited from unnecessary and/or inappropriate physical contact with minors while in vehicles.
 - c. Minors should be transported directly to their destination. No stops should be made unless approved by the director of the program.
 - d. Church personnel assigned to transport minors must be at least 24 years old and have a valid driver's license.
2. Church personnel are prohibited from having minors stay overnight at their residence.
3. Changing and showering facilities or arrangements for adults must be separate from facilities or arrangements for minors.

D. Standards of the Archdiocese as to Physical Contact with Minors

1. Church personnel are prohibited from using physical discipline in any way for behavior management of minors. No form of physical discipline is acceptable. This prohibition includes spanking, slapping, pinching, hitting, or any other physical force as retaliation or correction for inappropriate behavior by minors.
2. Appropriate affection between Church personnel and minors is important for a child's development. It also constitutes a positive part of Church life and ministry. However, Church personnel should always be aware that physical contact with minors can be misconstrued and should occur (a) only when completely nonsexual, when there is no possibility of others perceiving it as sexual, and when such contact is otherwise appropriate, and (b) never in private.
3. The following forms of affection are regarded as appropriate examples of affection for most Church sponsored and affiliated programs:
 - Hugs.
 - Pats on the shoulder or back.
 - Hand-shakes.
 - "High-fives" and hand slapping.
 - Verbal praise.
 - Touching hands, faces, shoulders and arms of minors.
 - Arms around shoulders.
 - Holding hands while walking with small children.
 - Sitting beside small children.
 - Kneeling or bending down for hugs with small children.
 - Holding hands during prayer.

- Pats on the head when culturally appropriate. (For example, this gesture should typically be avoided in some Asian communities.)
4. Some forms of physical affection have been used by adults to initiate inappropriate contact with minors. In order to maintain the safest possible environment for minors, the following are examples of affection that are not to be used in Church sponsored and affiliated programs:
- Inappropriate or lengthy embraces.
 - Kisses on the mouth.
 - Holding minors on the lap.
 - Touching buttocks, chests or genital areas.
 - Showing affection in isolated areas such as bedrooms, closets, staff-only areas or other private rooms.
 - Being in bed with a minor.
 - Touching knees or legs of minors.
 - Wrestling with minors.
 - Tickling minors.
 - Piggyback rides.
 - Any type of massage given by minor to adult.
 - Any type of massage given by adult to minor.
 - Any form of unwanted affection.
 - Compliments that relate to physique or body development.

E. Standards of the Archdiocese as to Screening of Church Personnel Who Come Into Contact With Minors.

1. Without exception, all applicants for Church personnel positions that will involve coming into contact with minors must comply with the following procedures
 - a. Reading and signing an agreement to abide by these Policies and the Archdiocesan Code of Ethics (See Appendix B).
 - b. Cooperating, as necessary, with a criminal records check in accordance with Archdiocesan policy. This criminal records check shall be conducted after the hire but prior to the start of employment and prior to the start of ministry or volunteer work.
 - c. Attending the Protecting God's Children program.
 - d. The above procedures apply to all church personnel who may come into contact with minors where the church personnel could be alone with a minor, i.e., not in the company of other church personnel who have met the applicable procedures above. For instance, the mother of a school age child who volunteers to read for an hour to the children in class would not be subject to these provisions because the school teacher, who has achieved compliance with these procedures, would always be present in the class and the parent would never be alone in class with the children. On the other hand, all school employees and all parish employees must comply with these procedures since they could conceivably be alone with a child on school or church property. Furthermore, all volunteers who are expected to be alone or could be alone with minors must also comply with these procedures, for instance unpaid youth program leaders, catechetical teachers, field trip or retreat chaperones, church ushers and the like.

2. Before being placed in a volunteer position that involves work with or ministry to minors, volunteers should be registered members of the parish for at least six months. After consultation with the Director of Communications, exceptions in extraordinary circumstances may be made by the pastor or principal.

3. Church personnel who transfer from one parish or school within the Archdiocese to another parish or school within the Archdiocese may request that their Church personnel application be transferred to the new parish or school. The six-month wait will not apply to these transfers.

F. Standards of the Archdiocese as to Training for Church Personnel who Work with Minors

1. Church personnel, as noted in V.E.1.c. above, who are involved with minors must participate in training by attending the Protecting God's Children program as soon as possible, but no later than 30 days after they assume their position. Failure to participate in such training as provided by the Archdiocese may lead to termination of employment or expulsion as a volunteer.

G. Standards of the Archdiocese as to Supervision of Programs that Involve Minors

1. Parents have a right to observe programs and activities in which their children are involved. However, parents who desire to participate in or have continuous, ongoing contact with their child's programs in the Church shall fulfill the requirements of the volunteer application process as stated in this Section.
2. Programs for minors shall be sponsored or administered by at least two adults.
3. Church personnel under the age of 21 shall work under the direction of an adult supervisor who is age 21 or older.
4. Church personnel in leadership roles shall be aware of all programs for minors that are sponsored by their parish or school. A list of these programs shall be maintained in the central office and include activities, purpose, sponsors or coordinators of the programs, meeting times and locations. Leaders shall regularly examine these programs and consider whether they have adequate supervision.
5. All new programs for minors must be approved in writing by the pastor and/or principal.

VI. Reporting of Violations of the Policies on Professional and Ministerial Conduct

A. The Reporting of Violations of the Policies on Professional and Ministerial Conduct Shall be as Follows:

1. Regarding pastoral exploitation by clergy – as set forth in Section IV. C above.
2. Regarding crimes and matters set forth in the Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) between the Prosecutor’s Office and the Archdiocese – as set forth in Section VI. D below.
3. All matters regarding minors – as set forth in Section VI. B&C below.
4. Regarding crimes or other illegal actions by church personnel, which do not fall into one of the foregoing categories, as follows:
 - A. Report crimes to the police and also report: (a) in accordance with the whistleblower policies of the organization; and (b) to Archdiocesan Risk Management.
 - B. Report illegal activities other than crimes as follows: (a) to the organization in accordance with its whistleblower policies; and (b) to Archdiocesan Risk Management.
 - If there are questions about the applicability of these policies, consult your supervisor or superior.
 - If infractions are confirmed, Church personnel will be subject to disciplinary action up to and including termination.

B. Reporting of Suspicious or Inappropriate Behavior Involving Minors

1. If Church personnel observe any suspicious or inappropriate behaviors with minors on the part of other Church personnel, they shall immediately report their observations to their supervisor. If the supervisor is engaging in the inappropriate behavior, the supervisor may be by-passed and the behavior reported to any supervisor.
2. If at any point in gathering information about suspicious or inappropriate behavior, a concern arises that there is a possibility of abuse of a minor, the New Jersey Division of Youth and Family Services (DYFS) shall be contacted immediately. DYFS maintains a 24-hour child abuse hotline at 1-877-NJ ABUSE (652-2873). See Section VI. C. below for additional procedures in the event that there is a suspicion of abuse of minors.
3. In addition, Church personnel shall comply with the reporting requirements under the Memorandum of Understanding (see Section VI. D. below) by immediately contacting the MOU Liaison (See contact information at page 2) if there is any indication that the crimes involving minors and listed in the MOU are being or have been committed.

4. Inappropriate behaviors or policy violations that relate to interactions with minors also shall be reported to the Director of Communications. (See contact information at page 2.)

This policy only applies to employees. However, volunteers are required to report instances of employee harassment which the volunteer may witness.

Harassment is the intentional creation of a hostile or intimidating environment based upon any one or more of these areas.
- (b) Harassment may involve severe and/or pervasive conduct. Severe conduct is conduct sufficient to alter the work environment, even though it may occur only once. Pervasive conduct is a persistent pattern of harassment.

- (b) Sexual Harassment is defined as unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature, and constitutes harassment when:
1. Submission to such conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of an individual's employment,
 2. Submission to or rejection of such conduct by an individual is used as the basis for employment decisions affecting the individual, or
 3. Such conduct has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual's work performance or creating an intimidating, hostile or offensive work environment.

No employee shall suffer any job detriment or retaliation at the hands of the employer for reporting harassment/sexual harassment. If a person reporting harassment/sexual harassment believes that he/she has been subjected to retaliation, the person should immediately report the retaliation in the same manner which he/she is to use to report harassment/sexual harassment (see Par. C above), but may bypass the person who is retaliating.

F. Disciplinary Action For Harassment And Sexual Harassment.

Volunteers are persons who render services without receiving compensation for such services. Volunteers are not employees. A copy of this policy shall be provided to each volunteer. Although the law and this policy do not protect persons who are not employees, it is the policy of this organization that any volunteer who witnesses employee harassment/sexual harassment as defined herein shall immediately report the harassment/sexual harassment in the same manner as an employee is required to report it.
